Dear Admiral Turner --

My wife and I wish to invite Mrs. Turner and yourself to be our guests for the Metropolitan Opera's production of Benjamin Britten's Billy Budd on Saturday evening, 26 April.

We think you will appreciate this cord, particularly because of Melville's moving treatment of the problems of leadership -- and also because of the naval setting.

We would plan to serve dinner before the opera at our house -- not far from Kennedy Center -- at 6:00 pm.

We hope that you will be able to accept --

David Powers
